

God's SatNav

Will always recalculate

The destination is always perfect

There are blessings along the way

There is no limit to the number of times it recalculates

Does not hold it against you

Does not compare you with others